

Dear Customer,

02 September 2019

Considering recent global events, the airline carriers and Top Cargo see ourselves forced to be more attentive to shipments that may possibly be harmful to an aircraft or its staff and passengers. Products that may seem harmless in our everyday use may be considered as dangerous for air transportation by the IATA DGR rules. Pressurized sprays, perfumes with alcohol, body creams, anti-mosquito or bug sprays, and others are products we use every day, however in moments of pressure loss in the aircraft or a fire in the cargo bay, these products may accelerate, burn or rocketeer in the aircraft causing serious harm to the flight.

As one of the leading air cargo forwarders at Schiphol airport we feel it is our duty to spread the awareness of Dangerous Goods to make air transportation safer. Therefore, we ask you to sign the attached declaration and to be cooperative to our staff in case they have any queries regarding any of your shipments. In case we are unsure about the nature of the goods and no MSDS can be provided, we may refuse your shipment. In all other cases we will assist you to pack and handle the shipment in compliance with IATA DGR rules and regulations. Our staff can label & repack your shipment and also create a dangerous good declaration if required. If you are in doubt if your shipment contains dangerous goods for air transportation, please feel free to contact our office. We will be happy to assist and to find the best solution for you.

We thank you for your kind cooperation to make air transport safer.

With kind regards,

Bart Leeftang

General Manager

Cargo Statement about
No Lithium Battery & Undeclared Dangerous Goods to Top Cargo B.V. for Acceptance

I, (Company and manager name) _____

as the Shipper or Shipper's representative agent, confirm that all our shipments (except the ones we inform Top Cargo that the shipment contain dangerous goods) does not contain any type of Lithium Battery, and no goods contains any type of built-in Lithium Battery, as well as any undeclared Dangerous Goods. I acknowledge that Top Cargo BV is permitted to open packaging or stop shipping in case of any doubts.

Should any violation be spotted, me and my company takes the full legal responsibility and penalty from either FAA, TSA the Dutch IL & T, the cargo handler or any other party legally involved in the air transportation of this shipment.
